Every patriolic American favors he avowed purpose of the Mundt-vixon bill. But it is a significant lmission of internal weakness then, in a republic as old as ours, have to admit we need a new w to handle treason. There are, and have been ever

The action needed here is from BI investigators—not the law-

I scarcely need to point out to that every time you tolerate bassage of a force-bill you put this berty-loving nation of ours in the position of shooting at one thing ind almost certainly hitting in-other. That is, when you outlaw Communist by name he'll go inderground; he won't be there nder his real name—and you will lave on the books one more law that is a loaded gun for future truce-holders to put to the head of some common citizen.

The South in particular should

On all these matters it is an istoric fact that we already have Il the basic law that we need. Law

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous distress. It works this way:
Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Bour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleen, wankiest.

"Anything for a laugh." That's what people always say about circus clowns. They'll knock themselves silly just to give little boysand big boys, too-a treat they'll always remember. Take Lulu, for instance. Here she is; merforming in New York, giving two boys a thrill that comes once in a lifetime. Lulu's husband was a clown, too. They had worked together for 20 years. His name was Albertino. The two were on the radio the night before this picture was taken. And Albertino fell dead at the microphone. But, with circus clowns, it's anything for a laugh. So Lulu covered her tears with greasepaint, and went on with her act.

The New Hampshire senator decided to do that after the Senate late yesterday rejected by a 55 to 18 vote a motion to pare $200,000, 200 from a bill to provide a record $840,253,200 for next year's water-ways program. $640,253,200 for next year's water-ways program.

The issue was whether to send the bill back to the Appropriations Committee for pruning.

Twenty five of his Republican colleagues voted against Bridges and 16 other GOP senators. Senators Byrd (D-Va) was the only Democrat for recommittal.

Byrd laid some harsh figures before the Senate in arguing for the cut. He predicted the government will operate in the red by some $12,000,000,000,000 to $8,000,000.000 in the year beginning July 1, 1949, and that this deficit will amount to $1,000,000,000,000 in the following year.

Although chloroform is no longer used to any great extent as an anesthere, because better painkilling drugs have been developed. its discovery 101 years ago was of great importance. The original patient was a woman in Edinburgh, Scotland, whose previous labor had lasted for four days. The administration of chloroform anesthesia permitted obstetrical procedures which reduced the time, facilitated the birth and allowed the long-dreaded delivery to be accomplished while the patient slept.

This event and the courage of Dr. James Y. Simpson, who first used it, should be honored. It is particularly interesting to note, that eight years after Simpson graduated from medical school, he is too short for the girls to learn all the things they should know was appointed to the professorship of obstetrics, or mid-wifery as it was then called, at the ripe age before taking over responsibilities of their own home; however, the schedule is full and experiences rich especially since they are plan-

THE STORY: Jessica Gordon, aristocratic southern belle, has eloped with Yankee soldier Tom Blake in defiance of her father and in spite of her own qualms. Tom has a few days furlough and takes her to his home in Akron to stay with his folks until his discharge from the Army. Tom's sister, Lucy, greets Jessica coolly; his mother is openly antagonistic. The house is ugly and dark.

She nodded and slanted her eye at him and smiled, but Tom would have none of it. His face was hard and angry.

Every day Jessica weakly postponed the actual scene she felt would follow when she announced her unwillingness to accede to Tom's descision.

Ten-Legged Cannon Is Demonstrated

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Editor Tulsa, Okla., May 20 - (AP)- A ten-legged cannon—which shoots its legs into oil wells—is on show here at the international petroleum

Near the top it has an explosive chamber, and when the "shot" of powder explodes there, it drives a piston downward. The piston in turn drives the legs.

the side of the cannon.

When the gun fires, the legs are forced downward. At the same time they spread outward, each pair just like a dancing girl doing the splits. The legs are hollow. As they spread each leg is driven into the stone sides of the oil well. The hole in each leg picks up a sample of the rock at that point — what the oil men call a core.

After the cannon is fired, it is pulled up out of the well, its legs still hitched on, and each leg gives a sample of the rock. The samples

The straws travel too fast to break. The marbles do the same, starting at a speed of several miles a second, they are shot by nitroglycerine. They are packed around the nitro in an arrangement called the glass marble torpedo, by the inventor, J. Gordon Burch, of Borger, Texas.

Dime-store marbles were first used, Now they are specially hardened glass, which explodes into powder when it breaks. The torpedos are used on old oil wells which have nearly quit producing.

Of course, probably nobody claims that the charming lady, who one day likely will be queen, and her husband committed any terrible sin by their activities on Sunday, However, members of the royal tamity do have a mighty influence on the habits of the rank fand tile, and must expect criticism and file, and must expect criticism from the afficients of ordinary 26 and No. 27—Fair condition. The Scots as a whole are intensed furing many visits to the land of my paternal ancestors. The sabbath is a day for worsnip and contemplation. Scots who believe in the old time religion have no place for sports or recreation on Sunday. Why, the average Scot won't induse in golf on Sunday, though he loves the game so much he uses a golf club for a cane so that he always will be ready for play. Many even frown on whistling as too fire olous.

He was ostracized by all the guides at his headquarters intil he finaly begged forgiveness and promised never to do it agin.

But that religious austerity isn't confined to Scotland. You find the force things in parts of England. Down in the picturesque old fishing village of St. Ives, on the southwest Coast, the Fisher folk take their religion so seriously that they won't even permit visitors to break won't even permit visitors to break the saibath. For example I have known the fishermen to stop a woman from knitting on the rocks by the sea, and a man artist who was painting beside the water was thrown into it.

Still, we don't have to go so far as the British Isles to find religious zeal. There's plenty of it right here in the United States—throughout most of the world, for that matter.

As a matter of fact the Communist effort to kill religion, as the "dope of the masses" undoubtedly has reacted against the Reds. Religious folks have been stimulated to battle for their beliefs. Britain Will Continue to Aid Arabs

A foreign office spokesman told a news conference Britain saw "no reason at all" to depart from her treaty obligations with mid eastern Arab states because of their actions in the Holy Land.

Those treaties contain military clauses under which Britain supplies arms. Under the Trans-Jordan treaty, King Abdullah's Arab Legion also receives a British subsidy of 2,000,000 pounds ($8,000, 600) a year, Britain trains and equips the armics of Egypt and Iraq.

She has not recognized the existence of Israel, as have the United States, Russia and several smaller fations. The spokesman acknowledged Britain has received a request for recognition from Moshe Shertek, foreign minister of the Jewish regime.

The spokesman indicated that they are attacking another state. He said:

"Until we know whether the Jewish authorities can effectively administer the country, until the boundaries have been amounted and until we know they are capable of fulfilling their international obligations, we cannot recognize their existence."

The spokesman said 40 British officers were serving with the Arab Legion in Palestine. He said:
